

A Season of Prayer

Prayers of Thanksgiving

Psalm 77

When we can't remember who God is, remember what God's done.

Psalm 77

1 I cried out to God for help; I cried out to God to hear me.

2 When I was in distress, I sought the LORD; at night I stretched out untiring hands...

Psalm 77

2 and my soul refused to be comforted.

Shakespeare and the Psalms

“But soft what light through yonder window breaks”

“To be or not to be, that is the question.”

Psalm 77

5 I thought about the former days, the years of long ago...

7 Will the LORD reject
forever?

CS Lewis, Abolition of Man

“For the wise men of old, the cardinal problem was to conform the soul to reality...for magic and applied science alike, the problem is how to subdue reality to the wishes of men.”

Psalm 77

Verses 1-9: When we can't remember who God is...

Verses 11-20: Remember what God's done.

Psalm 77

11 I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.”

Psalm 77

15 “With your mighty arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.”

Psalm 77

Gen 50:20: “What you intended for evil, God intended for good.”

Psalm 77

19 Your path led through the sea,
your way through the mighty waters,
though your footprints were not seen.

Psalm 77

20 You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.
